Louis Latour Château Corton Grancey Grand Cru 2016

Luminous medium-deep ruby. Admirably reserved, but with a lovely ripe red-berry scent. A silky entry, with the gratifying slip and slither of perfectly ripe and well-wrought. Pinot tannins, properly dry but not too drying, so the promise of a stylish bottle over the medium term.

Louis Latour Corton Grand Cru « Clos du Roi » 2016

Some fresh and airy notes. The palate has a sense of grace and light and shade. The tannins are a touch raw on the finish, but this has much more poise than most in its flight. High-quality red-berry fruit.
