

Corton-Charlemagne Grand Cru

“A subdued nose on this wine allows glimpses of lemon and chalk, holding a distant promise of gilded richness. The palate comes in with smooth precision, still harboring a flinty whiff of reduction but also hinting at creamy, rich depths of texture and flavor. A chalky well of lemony, cool freshness awaits at the core... The finish offers a lovely note of butter.”

Beaune 1er Cru “Aux Cras”

“Subtle smoke and toasted hazelnut on the nose of this wine are met with lemony vividness. The palate sweeps in with concentration and fruit, adding limestone coolness, freshness and depth. It’s a wonderfully well-defined white gem with a lasting echo.”

Meursault 1er Cru “Les Genevrières”

“Lemon-scented oatmeal and creaminess promise richness on the nose of this wine. The palate delivers with rounded generosity framed with freshness and precision. Chalky depth is brightened by rich, lemon-oil freshness. Creamy smoke surrounds it all, providing rich unity.”

93

Meursault 1er Cru “Goutte d’Or”

“Creamy richness on the nose of this wine has hints of lemon and ripe Mirabelle plum. The palate follows suit with a generous mouthfeel that holds smooth creaminess, hints of vanilla, chalkiness and vivid lemon-oil roundness. This strikes a rich but harmonious balance. The finish is mellow, full but also fresh.”

93

Meursault 1er Cru “Poruzots”

“Wood smoke and lemon peel mix deliciously on the lifted nose of this wine. The concentrated palate continues both notions but imbues them with a creamy, full-fruited and chalky richness that speaks of ripe Mirabelle plum and generosity. All this is framed in concentration and freshness for a bold, rounded wine.”

Pernand-Vergelesses 1er Cru "En Caradeux"

"The nose of this wine needs some air in order to wake up but soon notions of ripe Amalfi lemon and butter rise from the glass. On the palate, freshness takes center stage, with a playful, concentrated finesse that dances across the tongue. The wine is wonderfully sprightly and refreshing, with unforced resonance."

93

Chassagne-Montrachet 1er Cru "La Grand Montagne"

"Wet chalk notes and a little yeasty funk precede notions of Mirabelle and cream on the nose of this wine. The palate presents a textured canvas of chalky, lemony but gentle, creamy freshness. The lovely seamlessness expresses concentration, precision and gentleness in equal measure."

Beaune 1er Cru "Grèves"

"A subtle nose on this wine unites subtle Mirabelle and gentle citrus. The merest hint of honey chimes in, casting a richer light over the rich but toned texture of the palate. This wine is a wonderful textural experience. Fruit and roundness, freshness and subtle smoke recede to leave the limelight to that lovely mouthfeel."

91

Meursault

"Citric lift emerges from creaminess on the nose of this wine, promising freshness. The broad, round palate is still raw with yeasty notions, but a vein of lemony brightness awaits underneath. With time, the generous, creamy wine will coalesce around it."

Puligny-Montrachet 1er Cru "La Garenne"

"Wet chalk notes and a little yeasty funk precede notions of Mirabelle and cream on the nose of this wine. The palate presents a textured canvas of chalky, lemony but gentle, creamy freshness. The lovely seamlessness expresses concentration, precision and gentleness in equal measure."

Meursault 1er Cru "Perrières"

"Intense creaminess on the nose of this wine has a lick of lemon. The palate presents the same combination and adds a textured, pithy and yeasty mouthfeel that seems to drill down to stony coolness, despite the creaminess above. Highlights of ripe Mirabelle juiciness and creamy smoothness last all the way to the long finish."

91

Puligny-Montrachet

"Yeasty, reductive funk still plays on the nose of this wine, expressing as much flintiness as earthiness. The palate comes in with rounded softness, a mellow juiciness that still reverberates with seemingly suspended yeast. This expresses youth and the generosity of the warm vintage. Structure becomes apparent on the finish."
