MONTRACHET
GRAND CRU

Opulent in style, this white's texture borders on oily, with flavors suggesting sweet corn, lemon oil, peach, citronella, vanilla and hazelnut. Firms up as this evolves toward the lingering aftertaste, remaining long and complex. Still, this needs a bit more age to hit its stride. Best from 2025 through 2038. From France.—B.S.

BÂTARD-MONTRACHET
"CLOS POIRIER"

A youthful white, laced with buttery lemon cake, peach, vanilla and citronella aromas and flavors. Supple and harmonious, revealing an undercurrent of seashore/iodine. The superlong finish echoes all the fruit, mineral and baking spice elements. Drink now through 2036. —B.S.

MEURSAULT-BLAGNY
1ER CRU
"CHÂTEAU DE BLAGNY"

An intense, viscous white, showing vanilla, butterscotch, peach and clove notes. Bright and juicy, with focus that persists through the long aftertaste. Concentrated, this should develop well. Drink now through 2028. —B.S.
