2017 Burgundy En Primeur Review

2017 Chevalier Montrachet Les Demoiselles Grand Cru

Score: 95

“This 0.79ha parcel has been part of the Louis Latour portfolio since 1913 and is always vinified separately. Rich, leesy and comparatively late picked in 2017, this has the weight and texture to handle its 100% new wood, plus plenty of taut, refreshing minerality.”

2017 Corton Charlemagne Grand Cru

Score: 94

“Nobody owns more Corton-Charlemagne than Louis Latour, whose ten parcels are spread across 9.95ha in Ladoix and Pernand-Vergelesses. This is a textbook interpretation of the grand cru in a vintage which has produced some impressive wines across the appellation. It's spicy, plush and powerful, with some white pepper notes, vivid acidity and sweet, toasty oak.”

2017 Chateau Corton Grancey Grand Cru

Score: 94

“Taking an approach that owes as much to Bordeaux as it does to Burgundy, Louis Latour blends four different Corton climats (Bressandes, Perrières, Grèves and Clos du Roi) to produce this stylish, ageworthy Corton. Fine, scented and well balanced, it's refreshing and gently oaked, with good palate length and a nip of tannin.”
