

Wine Spectator

July 2019

Louis Latour
2017

Meursault 1er Cru "Genevrières"

92

An intense version, this is marked by a touch of herbs, highlighting the apple, lemon and toasty oak notes. Honey and hazelnut accents round out the flavor spectrum as this cruises to a long finish.

Pernand-Vergales 1er Cru "En Caradeux"

90

A distinctive white, this offers quince, lemon verbena and floral aromas and flavors, allied to a vibrant structure. Focused and long, ending with a hint of quinine.

Puligny-Montrachet

90

A lean white, this reveals lemon, floral, baking spice and anise flavors. Trim and focused on the vibrant finish. Best from 2020 through 2024.