

Wine Spectator

March 31, 2020

Louis Latour

94

Corton Grand Cru Domaine Latour 2017

"A smoky red, infused with notes of autumn woods and herbs, featuring a core of strawberry and wild cherry flavors. Silky in texture and balanced, ending with a long, tightly wound and minerally finish. A serious version that needs time and will repay cellaring." - Bruce Sanderson

94

Château Corton Grancey Grand Cru 2017

"Opulent, silky and fluid, this offers cherry, raspberry, floral, mineral and spice aromas and flavors, well-defined by a lively structure. A slightly chewy intensity allows this to fan out on the juicy finish." - Bruce Sanderson