Description

The red wines that come from the vineyards surrounding the picturesque town of Beaune remain relatively undiscovered compared to its smaller, more famous neighbours. For this reason Beaune Rouge still represents extremely good value for money while providing an appealing introduction to the red wines of the Côte de Beaune.

Wine tasting

- Tasting Note This wine will delight us with its rich bouquet of wild berries including gooseberry and black currant which are complemented with more vegetable notes. Mellow on the mouth this wine offers perfect harmony that will ravish the palate. A wine that will evolve magnificently and will be ready to open in two to three years. Tasted January 2007
- Cellaring Potential 3-5 years
- Food Pairing Grilled meat - "coq au vin" - mature cheeses.
- Serving temperature 14-15°
