Description

The wines of Chassagne-Montrachet offer great value and timeless image. These wines command lower prices compared with those from the neighbouring appellations of Meursault and Puligny-Montrachet, and represent good value for money. The wines are bold and reminiscent of exotic fruits and Morgeot, which lies mid-slope with a south-easterly exposure, is a perfect example of this style. Morgeot lies on the border between the Côte d'Or and Saone-et-Loire regions, which was a boundary in the Gallo-Roman period. At this time this plot of land was called Morga from the Latin margo which means edge border from which today's name Morgeot is derived.

Wine tasting

- TASTING NOTE Pale yellow in colour with complex aromas on the nose of toasted almonds, peach and honey. This wine is full in the mouth, harmonious, yet powerful with vanilla and light pepper notes.
- CELLARING POTENTIAL 5-7 years
- FOOD PAIRING Shellfish - fish - foie gras - goats cheese
- SERVING TEMPERATURE 12-14°
