Description

Chassagne-Montrachet and its neighbour Puligny-Montrachet are well-known for their Grand Crus, the most famous being the Montrachet. However, apart from these white Grand Crus, Chassagne-Montrachet also produces outstanding red wines. These wines have good body and their structure is reminiscent of the reds from the Côte de Nuits.

Wine tasting

- TASTING NOTE The red Chassagne-Montrachet 2006 is very much the pure expression of its terroir. It unveils aromas of red and black summer fruits and liquorice. Well-structured, ample and lingering, this wine needs a few more years to fully express its harmonious structure.
