Description

The grapes selected to produce this wine are located on the hill of Corton in south-easterly facing parcels. The vines are managed in the traditional way by the Louis Latour team which carries out strict pruning in order to produce later harvests thus insuring a good degree of maturity in the grapes. This wine is made up of grapes selected from several different parcels of vines in order to guarantee consistent quality each year. It has a good ageing potential.

Wine tasting

- TASTING NOTE With a superb bright ruby-red colour, Corton Grand Cru 'Domaine Latour' 2011 reveals aromas on the nose of liquorice and cherry. On the palate it is full-bodied with soft tannins and gentle wooded notes at the finish. This wine is best once matured for several years in order to reach its peak.
- CELLARING POTENTIAL 10-15 years
- FOOD PAIRING Beef "Bourguignon" - wild boar - mature cheeses.
- SERVING TEMPERATURE 16-17°
